

Our Unsung Heroes

This morning I want to share with you about a group that we call our unsung heroes. Before I can do that, however, I want to share with you just a part what our heroes have accomplished this past summer. As you know, summer is a busy time for us missions and ministry wise. Here are some amazing facts I want to share with you that we saw this past summer...

- XXX attended our Vacation Bible School this past summer. A large part of those children don't have a church home. Many of them heard the Gospel message for the first time. We were thrilled to see, XX accept Jesus as their Savior. Thank you, unsung heroes!
- XX attended our summer student/youth camps. These students learned valuable principles that will help them navigate the tough waters of school life. Lives were changed, and as a result of the support of our unsung heroes our summer camps helped train tomorrow's leaders.
- Our mission teams spread out across the country and world. Our teams were able to do amazing things. Share some specifics here. Our unsung heroes helped make this happen!

So, who are our unsung heroes? You! Without your hours of volunteer labor, none of the above would have been possible. Without your generosity, we would not have been able to accomplish near what we did. So every person who served is a hero. Every person that gave to help support our mission and ministries this summer is a hero.

Only Eternity will tell the full story of what your generosity has meant not only to our church but to the Kingdom. It's impossible to fully measure the result of each dollar given. Yet as we prepare for this week's offering, I simply wanted to say thank you to all who give so generously here. Your gift are making a difference. So, thank you to all our unsung heroes!
